

NSF HSI National STEM Resource Hub Professional Skills Workshops

Including Ethics in Research Experiences and Science Courses:

This workshop will provide faculty with student-centered pedagogical approaches to incorporating ethics into science education.

Session 1: 05/27/21 (9 a.m. PDT- 2 p.m. PDT)

Early admission apply by date: May 14

Session 2: 06/18/21 (9 a.m. PDT- 1 p.m. PDT)

Early admission apply by date: May 21

APPLICATION:

<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/hsihub-2021STEMwkshops>

GILLIAN HUE
EMORY CENTER FOR ETHICS

Gillian Hue is a lecturer in the Neuroscience and Behavioral Biology program and Director of the Neuroethics minor at Emory College. Dr. Hue is actively engaged in neuroscience outreach, ethical education of scientists, and has developed curricula to promote science literacy and ethical engagement at a variety of educational levels. She is a Senior Faculty Fellow in the Center for Ethics and is the Executive Managing Editor at the American Journal of Bioethics Neuroscience.